London Borough of Hounslow

Medical Officer / School Nurse

We are looking for someone who is of a calm and compassionate disposition to provide day to day medical needs of students and staff in a Special Needs school for pupils with Autism. You will take the lead on first aid, medication, healthcare plans, allergies and medical supplies, working closely with students, parents, colleagues and healthcare professionals.
You will also play an important part in helping us develop our medical provision and ensuring students receive the right support. This is a great opportunity to bring your skills, experience and ideas to our friendly school community. If you have a background in nursing, healthcare or a similar setting and are looking for a rewarding change of direction, we would love to hear from you. Flexible working hours will be considered. Visits to the school for interested candidates are encouraged.

You'll relish your time at work and have the work-life balance to enjoy your time at home! We take our staff well-being seriously. Our staff team is welcoming and professional and we believe that you will find the school a great environment to work in.
About you:

- You'll be awesome
- You'll want to have purpose in your work life and want to make a difference in the world
- You will have a passion for supporting pupils with additional educational needs and be motivated by the challenges that holds
- You will be able to work collaboratively to secure the best outcomes for all pupils

It's not just a job, it's a career – the benefits we offer you:

- Extensive CPD training which provides a range of tailored and bespoke CPD opportunities to all
- A well-resourced and enjoyable working environment
- Competitive salaries and pay progression – as a growing school there will be a number of opportunities over the next few years for staff that wish to progress
- A supportive leadership team who are engaged in your professional development and success
- Employee Assistance Programme (Counselling, information and support)
- Well-being and medical support
- Excellent transport links with Hatton Cross Station and Feltham Station close by
