

PE Teacher – SEND (Autism)

Location: Marjory Kinnon Send School

Salary: Teacher MPS/UPS plus SEN depending on experience

Contract: Full-time

Start date: September 2026

The Role

We are seeking a compassionate, motivated, and skilled PE Teacher to join our dedicated SEND team, working with pupils with autism and associated needs. This is a rewarding opportunity to make a genuine difference by promoting physical wellbeing, confidence, and positive social interaction through inclusive and structured physical education.

The successful candidate will deliver engaging PE lessons that are adapted to meet individual needs, helping pupils to develop physical skills, emotional regulation, communication, and a lifelong enjoyment of physical activity.

Key Responsibilities

- Plan and deliver differentiated PE lessons tailored to pupils with autism and SEND
- Create a safe, calm, and structured learning environment that supports sensory and emotional needs
- Use a range of inclusive teaching strategies, visual supports, and positive behaviour approaches
- Work closely with teaching assistants, therapists, and the wider multidisciplinary team
- Monitor and assess pupil progress in line with EHCP targets
- Promote teamwork, self-esteem, and physical wellbeing
- Ensure all activities meet safeguarding, health, and safety requirements

The Ideal Candidate Will Have:

- Qualified Teacher Status (QTS) or relevant teaching qualification
- Experience of teaching PE, ideally within a SEND or autism-specific setting (or a strong interest in SEND)
- A good understanding of autism and neurodiversity
- Patience, empathy, and a flexible approach to teaching
- Strong communication and teamwork skills
- A commitment to inclusive education and pupil wellbeing

We Offer:

- Small class sizes and strong staff-to-pupil ratios
- A supportive and experienced SEND team
- Ongoing CPD and training in autism and inclusive practice
- A welcoming, collaborative working environment
- New state of the art PE hall and resources
- The chance to make a meaningful impact every day
