

ENGLISH WITH PARENTS NEWSLETTER

MARJORY KINNON SCHOOL
Issue 2 / 18th March 2022

Learning English has never been so much fun!
Shout out to our English Enthusiasts and their Superstar Parents!

Zakaria – Elephant Class

I like ... – Commas to separate items in a list

Family comment:

Zak wrote a list of characters that he likes.

Child comment:

I wrote a list of character names using commas and full stops all by myself.

Aaditya - LS3

Searching for words- Dictionary skills

Family comment:

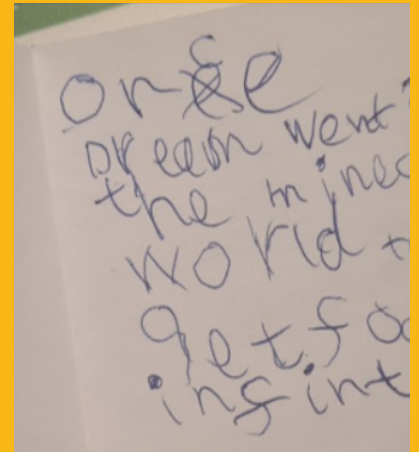

Aaditya enjoyed flicking through dictionary to find the word and its meaning.

Child comment:

Very easy to search words and meanings. I enjoyed playing with my parents.

David – Elephant Class

Five sentence story - Sequencing sentences to tell stories

Family comment:

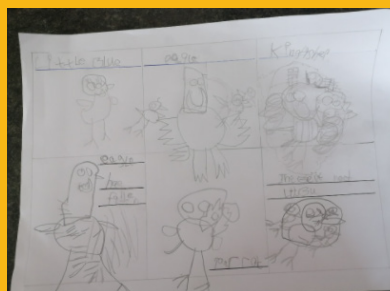

David really enjoyed writing the story about his favourite youtuber. He worked really hard.

Child comment:

This was fun. I liked the book.

Idrees - Elephant Class

Tell me a story - Sequencing sentences to tell stories

Family comment:

We read the book 'The best nest' as this book was all about birds. We chose a few key events in the story and spoke about them. Idrees could recall 1 or 2 key points.

Child comment:

I enjoyed drawing the different types of birds.

Millie – Rhino Class

Adjectives Game - Describing topic

Family comment:

Millie went into a lot of detail with her toys, it was easier to describe the soft toys.

Child comment:

Hatchimal toy - green, small, plastic, shiny, speckled.
Snail soft toy - rainbow hair, glittery, smells like grape (it's scented), metallic, furry, cute, pink and purple, silver eyes, happy.

WORDS ARE, IN MY NOT-SO-
HUMBLE OPINION, OUR MOST INEXHAUSTABLE SOURCE OF MAGIC.
- ALBUS DUMBLEDORE